U.S.A. v. Anthony Colandra
10 CR 1008 [BMC-RER]

by ECF

Dear Judge Reyes:

I am writing to Your Honor to seek authorization for my client to be out of his home and away from his work in order to attend his own wedding on Saturday, February 19, 2011. His bail conditions include home detention, except for work, and electronic monitoring. The ceremony is scheduled for 10:00 a.m. on Saturday at Our Lady of Good Counsel Church in Manhattan. It actually will be in the place where Mr. Colandra works every day. I have conferred with each of the suretors who consent to this request. All of the five suretors will be attending the wedding; one is his wife to be and another is the maid of honor. I have conferred with the Pretrial Services Officer. Should Your Honor grant this request I suggest that the Officer work out the times for Mr. Colandra to be out of his home and work on Saturday. I also spoke with Ms. Melonie Clarke, the Deputy Clerk for Judge Brian Cogan, who indicated that the application should be made to Your Honor, as you are handling the matter pre-trial.

Thank you for Your Honor's consideration of this request.

Respectfully yours,

Paul J. Madden
